of Anacostia, was painfully hurt and cut about the head and face and bruised on one of his knees during a collision between two cars of the Anacostia line, at the corday afternoon. Mr. Darling was in the center of the car at the time, and was going forward to put his fare in the box when the car ran into a switch, which was one coming rapidly in the other direction, the grade being quite heavy at that point. Mr. Darling was thrown with great force against the edge of the money box in the front of the car, and was so badly hurt that he was, for a time, unconscious. He was at once taken to his home on Monroe street, Anacostia, and Dr. J. A. Watson summoned. This morning Mr. Darling was much better. much better.

Richard Hurley, one of the men charged with being implicated in the riotous pro-ceedings near Chevy Chase power house about two weeks ago, and who has since been confined in the county jail at this of habeas corpus and taken before Judge Henderson of the circuit court for the purpose of having the amount of his bail reduced. The amount of the ball fixed by the committing magistrate was $500, and this was reduced to $400 by the court. Hurley being unable to procure a bondsman

Hurley being unable to procure a bondsman for this amount was remanded to prison. He is the last one of the four originally committed, the others having furnished security for their appearance at November term of court.

The ardor of democratic politicians to represent this county in the house of delegates shows but little abatement, the latest announcement for the nomination for one of the three seats being that of Mr. Wm. C. Riggs. This brings the number of aspirants up to nine. A rumor has been current here for several days that some of the names would be withdrawn before the time of holding the primary election in July.

The Rockville Burnt Cork Club has effected a permanent organization by the election of John W. Kelchner as business manager, G. A. Flack, secretary and treasurer, and Eustace A. Ansley, musical director. The organization proposes to give musical entertainments for the mutual pleasure of its members and the public.

OFFICIAL NOTICES.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: THE commission created by section 2 of public act No. 114, approved March 2, 1893, has received from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a certified copy of a map showing the proposed permanent system of highways in the District of Columbia within the area bounded by North Capitol street, Rock creek, Florida avenue and the District line. This map and plats, showing in detail how each lot and tract is affected by the proposed system of highways, are now on exhibition in the office of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. All persons interested are invited to examine the map and plats. This commission will consider any suggestion or protest concerning the location of any highway or portion of a highway as shown on the map. The suggestions and profests must be in writing and must clearly set forth the reasons for the changes and show the property owned or controlled by the objector. All protests, &c., must be submitted on or before JULY FIFTENTH, 1886, and be addressed to the Chief of Engineers, U.S. Army, War Department, Washington, D. C. This commission will meet AUGUST FIRST, 1885, if NINE O'CLOCK A.M., in the office of the Secretary of War, to dispose of all objections, and will then hear orally from those who desire to thus support their written objections. BROOKLAND.

The district officers of the Epworth League held a meeting Sunday evening for the purpose of electing officers and forming a league for the Brookland M. E. Church, the name of which will be the Brookland Epworth of Brookland, D. C. A call for members was made and thirtythree names were enrolled. A nominating committee reported the following list of officers, all of whom were unanimously elected: President, R. S. Wolfe; first vice elected: President, R. S. Wolfe; first vice president, E. E. Cissel; second vice presi-dent, Mrs. N. B. Malone; third vice presi-dent, Mr. J. E. Eastlack; fourth vice presi-dent, Miss Blanche Gudgins, fifth vice president, Mr. Leonardi. The newly elected officers were then properly installed by the officers were then properly installed by the officers of the District League, the presi-dent congratulating the members for such officers of the District League, the president congratulating the members for such encouraging beginning, and expressing the hope that they would derive great benefit from the organization. The new league will hereafter meet in the town hall on Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock, and their business meeting will be held on the third Wednesday of each month.

The M. E. Church building is rapidly nearing completion, and will be quite an ornament and pride to Brookland.
